How do I reclaim money that CRC has turned over to the State in my name?

Under the escheat laws of each respective state, we are allowed to hold unclaimed funds for a specific period of time. The funds are turned over to the state of the Owner’s last known address of record. If the address is unknown, then the funds are turned over to the state of incorporation of the reporting company. CRC’s state of incorporation is Delaware.
The reclamation process will be between the claimant and the state holding the money. If contacted by a specific State, follow the directions provided by that state. If contacted by someone other than the State, please be careful. Some ‘finders’ charge a fee or a percentage of the amount recovered. You can search for unclaimed property yourself. There are no fees and no time limit on reclaiming or filing a claim. The majority of states have unclaimed property web sites. You can search for your name and print claim forms from these sites. Begin your search by state name, then state government. For example, the California State Controller’s Office is the agency for the State of California. For some states, it is the Treasurer's office or Department of Revenue or, www.unclaimed.org/ maintains a national database of unclaimed property records of participating states; however, not all states participate in this database. Write to the state of residence or past residences and request a search be performed for you. All states have an unclaimed property department. For an accurate search, you should provide as much information as possible. Include your full name, social security number, and how you may be reached.

Remember, once you have reclaimed your funds, please contact the CRC hotline, 1-855-272-5519 Option 1, or email us at crc@ownerrelationssupport.com if you think there is a possibility we may be holding additional funds in your name.

Why did I not receive my Royalty check this month?
It is CRC’s policy to issue a payment once an account has accumulated $100.00 of production proceeds by CRC Company Number. If an account balance is less than $100.00, a payment will be issued when the account balance reaches $100.00, except for Long Beach Unit and Tidelands Unit Working Interest Owners where the minimum threshold is $25.00. Payments to Net Profit Interest Owners do not have a minimum threshold.

How do I determine my account balance?
Please contact the CRC hotline, 1-855-272-5519 Option 1 or crc@ownerrelationssupport.com
Where a CRC representative will need to verify the account information with you before we can provide this information.

What does it mean when my owner account is in negative? Do I owe CRC money?
If you are a Working Interest Owner, then this usually means that the expenses of operating the well and the taxes associated with the well have exceeded the revenue being produced from the well. If you are a Royalty Interest Owner or an Overriding Royalty Interest (ORRI) Owner, then this usually means that taxes were applied to your owner account, (e.g., Ad Valorem Tax), and the taxes were more than the revenue. Example – CRC applies Ad Valorem Taxes to Owner Accounts twice a year, so six months of Ad Valorem Taxes will appear with one month of revenue.
How do I obtain copies of my Form 1099-MISC, Oil & Gas Revenue Detail Statements, and/or Working Interest Expense Reports?

I received a document in the mail for unclaimed property for a relative of mine. How do I claim this money?

Please refer to CRC’s Transfer Instructions and Requirements document. CRC makes interest payments to the owners of the real property. In order to release any funds to you, you will need to provide CRC with the appropriate transfer of ownership documentation. Contact the CRC hotline, 1-855-272-5519 Option 1 or crc@ownerrelationssupport.com. Once you have provided the appropriate transfer of ownership documents, CRC will transfer the ownership interest to your account and release the funds to you.

I have moved and forgot to notify CRC, until I received a document from the state regarding unclaimed property. How do I claim this money?

Please contact the CRC hotline, 1-855-272-5519 Option 1 or email crc@ownerrelationssupport.com to check if your owner account has been placed in suspense for an unknown address or returned check. If so, CRC will send you a Change of Address Form then, completely fill out this and return back to CRC so we can update your address in our system and place your owner account back in PAY status. If your owner account is not in suspense, then we will need to research your owner account to determine if any additional documentation will be required.

How is my Net Revenue Interest (NRI) calculated?

(Owner’s Acreage/Total Acreage) x (Owner’s Interest in Owner’s Acreage) x (Royalty Interest) = Owner’s NRI

For Example: If a well is producing from 80 acres, your Lease covers 40 of those acres, you own 50% of the mineral rights on those 40 acres, and the royalty interest negotiated in your Oil, Gas and Mineral Lease is a 1/8 royalty interest, then your NRI calculation will look like the following:

\[
\frac{40 \text{ acres}}{80 \text{ acres}} \times 0.50 \times \frac{1}{8} = 0.03125000
